

Wedding.

The marriage of our esteemed townsman, Mr. David, to Miss Shear, so favorably known to our people by her success as teacher in the intermediate department of the Carson public school, was celebrated night before last at the residence of Capt. E. G. Winnie, situated about two miles northwest of town. The night was beautiful, the stars and moon outshone themselves, and not a "zephyr" troubled the dust. Only a gentle breeze pressed against the trees that on either side border the avenue leading to premises which bloom and grow green with horrid sage brush all around. The drive from town was delightful and seemed to inspire the guests with a happy serenity very fit for the occasion. The company numbered nearly a hundred, among whom were Governor Bradley, ex-Governor Blaisdell and several State officers. Elegant ladies were numerous and looked lovely in their cool summer dresses. Perfect ease and freedom from restraint prevailed and the time till the appearance of the bride was spent in pleasant conversation. Toward ten o'clock expectancies were satisfied and whisperings were hushed. The happy twain had entered the parlor through a side door accompanied by Mr. Benj. Winnie and wife who stood with them before the minister, Rev. James Woods, who proceeded at once in his peculiarly brief and happy way to make them one. The bride appeared very handsome, prettily attired in a Swiss dress elaborately trimmed and embroidered, a wreath of emerald-green blossoms and lilies of the valley gracing her dark hair tastefully braided and curled, from which flowed over her symmetrical figure the lovely bridal veil. The groom went through the ordeal without weakening perceptibly, but he was more at ease, for sure, when the parson's speech was done. After the awful ceremony, came congratulations and kisses which were delivered in the spirit. Ere long, after a reasonable interval, Mrs. Winnie the accomplished hostess, called in the numerous company to the refreshment table which appeared to view spread in profusion and the best of taste with everything choice and appropriate. The rich feast was heartily partaken of and all left the board with a feeling of enjoyment heightened ten fold by the good cheer. The married people were made the recipients of several handsome presents during the evening from friends who thus elegantly made testimonial of their regard. The wedding festivities were over about midnight. Good bye was said; good luck forever to the bride and groom was heartily prayed; and the guests all happy in the happiness of others returned home.

Now THAT we once more have a full Board of County Commissioners (and there were some grave legal doubts as to whether anything short of a full Board was an actual Board having power to transact business) we trust that there may be no more delays in the matters pertaining to our intended town government. The more this business is procrastinated the worse it is for the town. The nuisances which assail the eye and ear and nose and food the other senses should not have been allowed to breed and fester and exhale their infatigable of pungent and plague threatening stinks under this July sun; but they should have long since been abated and been succeeded by a sweeter and more wholesome atmosphere. But surely the time is ripe for the needed cleansing which a system of well framed ordinances would legalize and set on foot. We express a general feeling of solicitude when we say that there is need for very prompt action by the Board in putting in motion the machinery contemplated by the Town Government Statute.

A NEW COUNTY COMMISSIONER.—Governor Bradley has shown most excellent judgment in his choice of a successor to Mr. John Cheney, whose reticence from the Board of County Commissioners has been here noted. Mr. M. C. Gardner, one of the best and most trusted men in Ormsby county, was the person selected. Having heretofore wasted some efforts at defeating Mr. Gardner for local offices in this School District, we have had occasion to find out how popular and strong he is with his friends and neighbors. He is a very staunch Democrat—and a very honest and honorable citizen; and if he don't make a good Commissioner we don't know where one might turn to find the material for making such an officer. Governor Bradley merits the thanks of the people of Ormsby county for this very judicious appointment. If it will do for a Black Republican organ to say so much in favor of a life-long Democrat holding an important public office, we may be permitted to remark that the Governor's decisions are uniformly of a no less commendable sort than this. (We can afford to be truthful and just in dealing with the Governor, for he swears he will never have this nor any other office again.)

BENTON'S STAGE.—CHANGE OF TIME.—It will be borne in mind that Benton's Stage begins running on its new time to the Lake to-day. It will go to the Glenbrook this evening at 6 o'clock and will return from there to-morrow morning, in time for the 8 o'clock train to Virginia City.

THE FREIGHT BUSINESS OF THE V. & T. R. R.—We are under obligations to Mr. D. A. Bender, General Freight Agent of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, for the following tabular statement of the carrying business of the road for the past six months:

Articles.	In Pounds.	Lumber in Feet.	Wood in Cords.	Total in Tons.
Merchandise	42,020,000			21,010
Lumber	70,915,872	23,628,624		35,437
Wood	108,420,000		13,368	54,210
Coal (stack)	33,008,800			16,504
Grain	2,148,888			1,074
Fertilizers	12,000,000			6,000
Live Stock	250,000			125
Cr. Lumber	100,470			50
Totals	496,799,312	23,628,624	13,368	248,495

This showing conveys an idea to the practical mind of the vast amount of freighting done by this little road. The amount of lumber and coal wood transported is enormous; the weight of silver bearing ores is greater than was ever before officially published in connection with the freight business of any railway; and the bulion (eighty tons of it) is such a showing as it is impossible for any railway but this and its immediately connecting lines to show at all. And even this only indicates a certain percentage of the bulion which is constantly coming from the Comstock mines, inasmuch as a good deal of it finds transportation by wagons, stages and other conveyances. The officers and owners of this railroad may with reason feel a sense of pride in this exhibit of the business of their line.

CARSON STREET was very much enlivened last night by the setting up in business in its midst of two fast talking street pedlars. Up by the Magnolia was the gifted Palmer with his miraculous draught of socks and cigars and his immense volume of voice and modesty; and down hereaway, fronting Legate's, was the attractive and seductive profligate who sells five-dollar-gold-pieces at auction for four dollars and six bits and then sells soap and prize packages with a volubility of speech which is gratifying and instructive to the admiring listener. Palmer seemed to be the more successful of the two in holding his crowd. A pair of socks is a dead thing, you see; while a cake of prize soap is apt to have more or less ley about it.

KELLY & LEON's renowned troupe of concertists, dramatists, ethiopian performers and dancers will appear at the Carson Theater on Friday and Saturday evenings, the 11th and 12th inst. This company have been entertaining the play goers of Virginia for several nights past; and their performances are spoken of in the very highest terms of praise by the papers there. See their advertisement.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.—Two men who have been for some months confined in the Penitentiary were yesterday brought before the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus and released from custody. Their names are A. S. Brown and James Parker; and they were convicted, sometime last year, in the District Court for White Pine county, of the crime of grand larceny. (They were accused of stealing some of Len Wines' cattle.) Last Spring the defendants got a new trial awarded them by the Supreme Court, the indictment under which they were convicted being found to be radically defective. Since these decisions by the Supreme Court, Brown and Parker have been held to await the action of the authorities of White Pine county; but a Grand Jury has been in the meantime convened and discharged and no action taken in the matter, and yesterday District Attorney John Kittrell telegraphed in that he should do nothing further about the matter, and so the release prayed for under the writ was granted and they are now at large and free to roam.

OFF.—Governor Bradley went off last night to take a look at his flocks and herds. He will be away from here for several weeks. Judge Belknap and his wife started for San Francisco last night. They will make a brief stay there. Mr. P. C. Hyman, Warden of the State Prison also went to the Bay last night, accompanied by his children and their grandmother. He goes on some business of the State—some business which will be worth talking about by and by. We intend to publish his quarterly report in full to-morrow.

WILSON'S PARISIAN CIRCUS is regularly billed on the various corners and bulletin boards about town. This is reported by the California press to be a first rate show. It ought to be. John Wilson has been long enough on the Pacific coast to know what is necessary to meet the expectations of the people here. Moreover, John's circuses have always been good ones. He had a troupe here in 1863 that would be hard to beat. Of course everybody will go to see it.

FINE CIGARS.—Charley Friend, who is famous as a dealer in fine Havana cigars, received yesterday an invoice of very extra brands of the same. We noticed by the bill, as received by him from the wholesale dealer, that some of these cigars were sold as high as $19 per hundred; and the names embraced many favorite brands, such as "Marias," "High Life," etc. It is almost enough to tempt one to break a pledge not to smoke any more to see and smell these fine cigars.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. A. Mills, Major General John B. Winters and Mr. William Gibson of Gold Hill, called at the Appeal office yesterday forenoon. A carriage ride round amongst the leafy shadows of our abundant shade trees confirmed their impression that Carson is the most beautiful city of its inches on the Pacific Coast.

PREACHING at the Methodist church, this evening, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. C. L. Fisher, from Santa Clara, Cal., under the auspices of the Baptist Board of Home Missions.

THE MINT.—Silver bulion continues to arrive at the Carson Mint from Benton, California. Two large sacks of the precious stuff arrived yesterday for coinage.
